REGINA.

—Brotherton & Tero, jewellers, will shortly move into a new store which is almost completed next to the colonization store.

—A. Downie has commenced to build a residence for himself north of the track, haring sold his handsome property on Ross Street to P. Lamont, who will shortly take possession.

—Robt. Walsh, of the C.P.R. office here, has purchased from Mr. Eddy the double house under construction on 17th avenue west for $3,000 and he is also negotiating with Mr. Reilly for the purchase of a terrace now being built on Albert Street.

—The Y.M.C.A. have rented an entire flat in Mr. Eddy's new block on South street, and Mr. Eddy very generously gave the first quarter's rent as a subscription to the association. It is expected the rooms will be ready about October 1st, and the prospects for the Regina Y.M.C.A. appear most encouraging. Yesterday afternoon there was a meeting of the ladies of the several evangelical denominations in town and organization took place. Mrs. R. B. Gordon being elected as president of a Woman's Auxiliary of the Y.M.C.A.

—The Assiniboia Provincial Rifle Association has just issued a neat and highly creditable prize list for the second annual prize meeting, commencing Wednesday, 24th inst.
The list includes the Governor-General's silver medal, the Governor-General's bronze medal, our M.P.'s silver medal, the association's president's silver water pitcher and cup, the Lord-Governor's challenge cup, a silver cup by J. R. Wynne, Esq. of Montreal, and a valuable time piece by the association's vice-president, Haxley Reel, Esq.
In addition to the above differing prizes there are offered cash prizes aggregating $165, and as an extension to this there is offered, in kind, prizes the value of which totals $180. Not numbered in this amount is competition No. 11, which reads: "The Mackay Aggregate prize, a bay colt presented by Capt. Mackay, to be shot for at three annual meetings, and to be awarded the highest aggregate in matches Nos. 2, 4, 5, 6 and 8, the winner to shoot off in the fourth year, and the highest score to take the horse." Capt. Mackay reserves the right to purchase the horse; winner must be a resident of Regina. "The first competition for the horse was at the first annual meeting held last year." The good shots attending this annual meeting will not come from the fray empty-handed.

EDMONTON.

From The Bulletin.
—Fourteen families of settlers arrived at Red Deer in the week before last.

—The first annual exhibition of the St. Albert agricultural society will be held at St. Albert on October 20th.

—The four Norwegian land hunters who arrived last week located claims on the Stony Plain in township 52, range 1, west of the 5th principal meridian. They left for the south on Monday and will return next spring with their families and effects. It is likely that a large number of their fellow countrymen now residing in Dakota will follow their example.

—The Family Herald and Weekly Star, Montreal, has its enormous circulation because it does not encroach upon the local country paper's work. People everywhere find they need the Family Herald and Weekly Star, Montreal, in addition to their own local weekly. The Family Herald and Weekly Star has an enormous staff of high-salaried editors, and spends large sums in gathering general news of the world at large, besides employing money freely in adding to its literary miscellany.

—What I have said is just as true in the reclamation of the openly vicious. Did you ever know a drunkard to be saved through the caricature of a drunkard? Your memory of the staggering step and the thick tongue and the disgusting language, only worse madness his brain. But if you come to him in kindness and sympathy, if you show him that you appreciate the awful grip of a depraved appetite; if you persuade him of the fact that thousands win and the grasping books of evil inclination clutched in their souls as firmly as in his have been delivered, then a ray of light will flash across his vision, and it will seem as if a supernatural hand were steadying his staggering gait.— Talmage.

—Charming people, these exceptional people! Here's a medicine—Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for instance, and it's cured hundreds, thousands that's known, thousands that're unknown, and yet you're an exceptional case! Do you think that that lot of human nature which you call "it" is different from the other parcels of human nature? "But you don't know your case." Good friend, in ninety nine out of a hundred cases, the cases are the same—impre-blood—and that's why "Golden Medical Discovery" cures ninety nine out of every hundred. You may be the exception. And you may not. But would you rather be the exception, or would you rather be well? I you're the exception it costs you nothing you get your money back—but suppose I cure you?
Let the "Golden Medical Discovery" take the risk.

ITEMS OF INTEREST

—The Detroit International fair and exposition, which attracts yearly more than a quarter of a million of people, has taken high moral ground in its rules for the coming season. Not only will the games be closed on the Sabbath, but all forms of gambling and all selling of intoxicating beverages will be excluded from the buildings and grounds.
Strict precautions have been taken to prevent evasions of this close Temperance policy.

—Mrs. Yarcos, of Melbourne, Australia, a powerful and popular temperance speaker who is especially interested in juvenile work, has been gazetted as a constable under the "Neglected Children's Act," and now has authority to arrest destitute children, or those found in immoral places, and to have them committed to her charge by magistrates. These children are kept in a house, maintained by her, until foster parents are found for them.

—Only those are apt to derive some benefit from alcoholic beverages who do not use them habitually. Alcohol and all other drugs which are used constantly in health, leave little, if any, curative power in such cases. Alcohol, as a drug, has a specific value. It contains more hydrogen, and, therefore, more heating properties than oil or fat. An alcohol lamp heats more than an oil lamp. In long-continued fevers, when the supply of fat has been used up, and when the stomach refuses fat as well as other food, small doses of alcohol may produce sufficient heat to preserve the un-tilt crisis is passed. But as long as fatty food can be digested, fat, as a heating substance is far superior to alcohol, because the heat produced in the body by fat is steady and enduring, while the heat produced by alcohol is of short duration, and subsides suddenly.—Handbook for Alcoholism, by Rev. Geo. Zacher, Buffalo Plains, —The London Fireside News says: An American writer in Harper's Magazine gives an account of what he alleges he saw in England of drinking by women. The barroom, he says, is well patronized by women as by men. In the law houses into which he was invited he also found the women drinking. At one country house, when the ladies returned from a dance only one declined to take a something, and that lady afterwards called to her father to bring upstairs a "glass of toddy." He has been fortunate in his experience of better-class houses, in which certainly one is often struck with the number of ladies who drink water only. But that there is a great amount of drinking among English women cannot be denied. Grocers' licenses are largely responsible for this, but not entirely, as women of the poorer and lower middle class go into public-houses with little appearance of shame. Old men aver that this is a thing which they never saw in their youth.

IN THE COURTS.—The passage of the recent Original Package law by the Washington Congress, is likely to bring a large grist to the mill of the lawyers. The N. Y. Voice says: —A test case has already been agreed on in Kansas, which will be taken as swiftly as possible to the Supreme Court of the United States, to determine the constitutionality of the original package bill. If the decision upholds the bill, prohibition remains in about the same condition it was before the Supreme Court's original package decision was rendered. If the decision is adverse to the bill, the dilemma forced on the nation is, an unrestricted liquor traffic or national prohibition. So it is a case of heads we win, and tails we don't lose.—Canadian Voice.

ANOTHER GOOD WORD FOR OUR MOUNTAINS.

London Canadian Gazette: The eloquent description of some of the attractions of the mountain scenery of Canada which Mr. Rankine Dawson has sent to the Times will materially assist in bringing home to many Britishers the marvellous extent, variety and beauty of the new region which the Canadian Pacific Railway has opened up.
The writer briefly indicates some of the chief features of note and interest in the vicinity of the hotels the Railway Company has established among the mountains, at Banff, Field, Glacier and North Bend respectively. Like every other traveller before him, he has hearty words of commendation for the enterprise and foresight the company have shown in catering for the tastes of the traveller for pleasure as well as for the business man. And he confidently predicts much popularity for what he happily designates the Canadian Alps, as the grandeur and beauty of their snow-clad peaks, brawling torrents, and glacier-covered slopes become more fully known. Here is one characteristic passage from the letter:—

The fourth of the company's hotels at North Bend is welcomed at first as the breakfasting place for the day, but is remembered later as being connected with the canyon of the Fraser River, the last and most wonderful of the mighty clefts cut through the mountain ranges. The mountains here are not so high, rugged, and abrupt as are those of the Selkirk range, and much less snow is deposited on their summits.
But if the mountains do not equal those already described, the valleys, and especially this marvellous canyon—through which the railway is carried—far surpass anything of the kind seen before. Above, the steep bank rises, almost shutting out the sky; below the river swirls and surges; and, far away on the other side of the gorge, a thousand feet above the dark water, the old wagon road, the predecessor of the railway, seems to cling like a fly to the steep, rocky wall. Now we hurry across the dizzy bridge hung high above the boiling torrent, now plunge into a dark tunnel, or creep along a narrow ledge suspended as it were in midair. Far below on some rocky point is seen the patient Indian toiling with his great scoop net, and near him the salmon he has succeeded in catching by this primitive method are hung up to dry and smoke; or perhaps it is the industrious Chinaman swinging his cradle on some bar of river sand, and searching for the grains of gold which the heedless river has thrown up here. The more we see of this canyon the grander does it appear.
Words fail to describe its majesty; one must see in order to appreciate its desolate and awe inspiring grandeur.

Daniel Webster once said that the most momentous truth that ever came to him was his personal responsibility to God. So it should be with every truly thoughtful, conscientious man. The most momentous truth in relation to the saloon is the personal responsibility resting upon each citizen for its existence.

UNBEARABLE AGONY.

JAMES WEIDMAN, Address, Qu'Appelle Station, Assin.

FRIDAY, SEPT. 26, 1890.

WAKING UP.

The regular annual meeting of the Dominion Alliance for the total suppression of the liquor traffic was held in Montreal on the 14th and 15th ult. The Northwest Alliance had sent an appeal for help to thoroughly organize the Temperance vote of the Northwest Territories, which was most favorably received, and the statement therein given of the position of affairs in the Territories has received widespread publication and attention. As a result of the appeal of the Northwest Executive, the Prohibitionists of the east are waking up, and the indications are that a deep interest will be taken in our approaching general elections to the Territorial Legislative Assembly, which are likely to take place about April next. On the 13th inst. the Executive of the Dominion Alliance met the delegates from the Northwest to the General Methodist Conference at Montreal for the purpose of discussing the Northwest situation, and the result was that the Alliance Executive decided to raise a campaign fund of $500 for the purpose of engaging an organizer to address meetings and organize Prohibition Clubs throughout the Territories. This will be gratifying intelligence to the Prohibitionists of the Territories. It is to be hoped the organizer will get to work quickly. There is no time to be lost. There should be a rousing convention of Prohibitionists during the session of the Legislative Assembly this fall, and it will require much work to secure such a gathering. We trust the friends of the Cause throughout the Territories will rise equal to the occasion, give the organizer a hearty reception and rousing meetings.

In another column we give an article from the International Royal Templar which ought to open the eyes of that paper's eastern province readers to the dangerous position of the people of the Northwest Territories.

The last issue of the Dominion Illustrated (September 13) contains a full supply of portraits, scenery and illustrations of recent events of interest. The Earl and Countess of Aberdeen, the late Wm. Wilson, the late Judge O'Reilly, H. M. S. Bellenger, Canada and Thrush, in connection with the visit of Prince George of Wales, some fine military scenes, views of Kincardine, Ont., and the Chaudiere, and a collection of the noteworthy members of the civil service—the Ministers' private—see etatis. Altogether, in variety and excellence, it is a capital number. The letter press is of course of merit. Address, 73 St. James street, Montreal.

WE SHOULD DO THE REGULATING.

Though the Moosomin Courier has greatly improved as a newspaper since the change of proprietors a short time ago, it does not seem to have taken higher ground on the drink question. It is true the new editor has not yet openly advocated the license of the liquor traffic, but he does not ring out clear for Prohibition, and if we judge rightly has a sneaking regard for what the present state of things is intended to be the precursor. The Courier is exercised because the Dominion Alliance is taking an interest in the shameful administration of the Northwest Territories Act by the Lieutenant-Governor in the exercise of his permit power, and resents what it calls outside interference in this matter. It thinks we are "fit and proper persons to regulate our own affairs." Then why does it not resent the "outside interference" of the Dominion Government in instructing Lieut.-Governor Royal to regulate the drink traffic by his sale permits. If we are "fit and proper persons to regulate our own affairs," (something THE PROGRESS firmly believes in), why does not the Courier demand that we shall be allowed to do so? We have not seen it object to the despotic power exercised by Gov. Royal. Does the Courier think that the people of the Northwest are regulating "their own affairs" when they passively allow the Royal outrage to continue without vigorous protest. If we are governed from the East, have not the people of the East a right to express their views upon the way it is being done. Besides the people of the Northwest have great reason to complain of misgovernment on account of the misapprehension of the people of the East as to the true position of affairs in the Territories. Should we then resent it when the down easters are showing a deeper interest in our affairs? Should not the awakening be an indication that we are likely to have greater opportunities to "regulate our own affairs," and be welcomed instead of resented. The Courier should demand that our Legislative Assembly be given power to prohibit or license, then we would have a say in the matter, but as it now is we do not have much to say in regulating "our own affairs."

The McLeod Gazette says: "In Ontario there is one conviction for drunkenness for every 310 of the population, in the Northwest the proportion is one for every 3,085." The Gazette should have said "was," for the proportion of drunkenness is greater in the Northwest since the Royal permit licenses have had full swing. Very sensibly the Gazette comments its statement to the Dominion Alliance. The figures show the good results of even partial Prohibition, and that the Territories Act "does prohibit" at least to some extent. The Alliance is anxious to help its friends in the Territories to make the Prohibition complete. Surely the figures given by the Gazette ought to convince it that it is making a great mistake in advocating a license system under which in Ont. to there is so much drunkenness as compared with partial Prohibition in the Northwest. Come friend be honest and stand by Prohibition which when even badly enforced makes such a good showing.

Thursday, 6th November, has been appointed by the Dominion Government as a day of thanksgiving.

THE NORTHWEST OUTRAGE.

The people of Canada do not properly appreciate the gravity of the crisis in the Northwest Territories. Since the day of Confederation, there has not been so serious an attack upon representative government, so wicked a perversion of statute law, or so shameful a piece of despotism on the part of an executive officer, as the action of Lieut. Gov. Royal, in his endeavor to fasten the license system upon the Territories. It has ceased to be a mere matter of the extension of the liquor traffic, and has become a question of the power of Parliament. Parliament says that the manufacture and sale of intoxicating drinks is prohibited in the Northwest Territories, but this executive puppet knocks the law out with the stroke of his pen, and issued last year no less than 5568 permits to sell alcoholic drinks. If this can be done with a liquor law, why not with any other law? Shall Parliament, or Lieut.-Governors run this country? As a young people we must guard with jealous care, the power that we put in the hands of executive officers, and permit no usurpation of the self governing principle.

To prohibitionists this question is one of great moment. It is a matter of national importance, and is not merely local. We have many parallels drawn between the abolition and the Prohibition reforms. Those who have read U. S. history will remember that it was the attempt to foist slavery upon the new Territory of Kansas, and the high-handed action of executive officers, who were the tools of the slave oligarchy, (just as Royal is the tool of the whiskeyites of Canada), that aroused the people of the North, and opened their eyes to the true character of slavery, and the determination of its advocates to rule or ruin the country.

If the Prohibitionists permit these great Territories to come the sway of the liquor power, the cause will receive a blow which years will not recover. Every neighborhood, from Cape Breton to Vancouver, should be aroused, and fair warning given to the Dominion Government, that their creature at Regina must represent the will of Parliament, and faithfully sustain the laws of the domain.

Further than this, the prohibitionists of Canada should recognize the battle in the Territories as theirs, and should be prepared, with men and money, to back up the efforts of the noble men and women who are bravely battling against odds. If we cannot keep prohibition where it is law, there is small hope of winning it where it is entrenched behind law and capital, as it is in the older provinces. Let us declare that the traffic should not be extended, and stand by the issue.

THE NORTHWEST LIQUOR TRAFFIC.

London Advertiser.

Efforts are being made by the friends of Temperance in Toronto to restrain the issuing of permits for the sale of liquor in the Northwest Territories. Although in a Prohibition district, there has been a rapid and alarming increase of drunkenness and crime in those Territories, owing to gross abuse of the permit system. Permits have been issued indiscriminately and by wholesale by the present Lieutenant-Governor, with the result that the Northwest has Prohibition in name and license of the very worst character in reality. The prohibitory provisions of the Northwest Territories Act are virtually nullified, and as the law is such that only a fraction of the cases of drunkenness really come before the courts for investigation, the abuse has grown to an appalling dimensions. The criminal record, which during the years from '82 to '87 averaged 38 convictions a year, increased in '88 with the advent of the notorious permit system to 151, and last year the convictions ran up to 232. Mr. F. S. Spence, who addressed the indignation meeting held by the Temperance people of Toronto the other evening, asserts that the consumption of liquor for 1889 amounted to no less than three gallons per head for every man, woman and child in the Territories.

Notwithstanding the ease with which liquor can be secured, there is more contraband liquor imported than ever before. The police are rendered nearly powerless in dealing with it, as in almost every case when a seizure is made a permit can be produced. As long as the permit system exists it will be impossible to suppress illicit traffic in liquor. Much of the responsibility for the evil rests on the Dominion Government. But the Advertiser has no desire to make political capital out of the situation. Its object is to make the facts known, to rouse public sympathy with the friends of Temperance and morality in the Northwest, so that some means may be discovered whereby the prohibitory clause of the Northwest Territories Act may be carried out.

STRAIGHT TALK.

Qu'Appelle Vindicator.

It will be remembered that a week or so ago the good teetotalers of Toronto passed a number of resolutions in re the liquor traffic in the Territories, even going so far as to suggest that Lieut.-Governor Royal be impeached for issuing permits for the sale of four per cent. beer. The Moosomin Courier is taking the Toronto people to task for interfering in our affair, and goes on to state that the Province of Ontario is more in need of the fostering care of the promoters of temperance than are the people of the Northwest, showing that there was, last year, one conviction for drunkenness for every 310 of the population of that Province, while in the Territories the proportion was one to every 3,085. It has to acknowledge, however, that convictions for drunkenness in the Territories are increasing, giving the number of convictions for the past ten years, as follows: 0, 2, 0, 0, 0, 0, 0, 10, 33, 41; but it accounts for the growing number of convictions by saying that the law is more efficiently enforced now than it was four or five years ago. It is almost the unanimous opinion of those who take the trouble to observe the working of the liquor law in the Territories that there is now very little attempt on the part of the authorities to enforce the law, even against those whom they know to be continually infringing its provisions, compared with the efficiency manifested some few years ago. It is true that a show of watchfulness is made occasionally by the spilling of a few gallons, and the semi-occasional capture of a hapless carrier of the contraband. There is, however, a very great deal of room for the increase of efficiency in the matter of enforcing the provisions of the Territorial liquor law.

If Manitoba and the North-west Territories are ever to occupy a prominent position before the world, it will be chiefly through the facilities these Provinces enjoy for raising grain and stock cheaply. In this race the agricultural papers become important factors. Leading all others in this respect is the "Farmer's Advocate" of Winnipeg, Man., which began its career as a North-west Journal in January last, and has since that time, labored persistently and honestly with well directed energies toward the improvement of stock and the adoption of better methods of farming. Its September number, which marks the quarter century of the life of the parent journal in Ontario, is a credit to the publishers and the country, being filled with the very best agricultural matter and profusely illustrated with Manitoba stock and farm scenes, it also has two fine lithographs of pure-bred stock, produced in their natural colors. We are pleased to know the "Advocate" is meeting with the success it so well deserves.

STUCK TO THE RIGHT. Right actions spring from right principles. In case of diphtheria, dysentery, cholera, summer complaint, cholera morbus, etc., the most certain remedy is Fowler's Extract of Wild S. Sarsaparilla, containing a germicidal principle that makes it a positive cure. Never travel without it.

A BASH KNIGHT. Mr. Eamon Knight of Morris, Man., states that he was troubled with a rash, and was cured with a bottle of Blood Purifier. He highly recommends it as a blood purifier of the greatest efficacy.

THE CANADIAN LIVE STOCK AND FARM JOURNAL.

The September issue of the Canadian Live Stock and Farm Journal (published by The J. E. Cryan Co., Ltd., Toronto) is one of unusual interest. A genuine piece of realistic art is the group of Galloway cattle forming the frontispiece. The most timely editorials on live stock topics are "Distorting Cattle," "Autumn Management of Sheep," "Preparations of Food for Stock," while amongst the contributions we notice Prof. Shaw's article, the fourth in the series, on "Pure Breeds of Cattle." Another correspondent begins a historical series on the "Standard Bred Horse." A Scottish breeder of Ayrshires gives his experience and indicates how the Ayrshire might be further developed. Letters on interesting questions from all parts of the Dominion are published. The animal portraits that are given include one of the famous champion Herford cow Rosewater and the handsome Hackney stallion Rufus that won the Epsom Cup of England. A large portrait of John Dryden, Esq., M. P. P., is accompanied with a well written sketch of his life. "Purchasing Seed Wheat," and "A New Disease of Oats," are discussed. The latter trouble is thought to be due to a small worm, for which the remedies are fast lime and rotation. A contributor treating of the value of cheese factories cites cases where farmers under common circumstances have earned through them, thirty dollars per cow clear profit. Other articles on dairy matters include one on "Valuing Milk for Cheesemaking," in which it is shown that these factories should consider the quality of the milk as well as its weight, and pay accordingly. Mr. Joseph Youill, a dairyman of much experience, enumerates nine of the most common mistakes in butter making, the principal of which are keeping beef stock for milkers, and the use of the shallow pan system of setting milk. An exceedingly interesting feature is the new department, "Around the Cattle Table," in which the question of how to make the Farmers' Institutes more effective and attractive is discussed by Jas. Mills, President of the Agricultural College, L. Wolverson, Sec'y Fruit Growers' Association, Prof. J. S. W. Robertson, Central Farm, Ottawa, Prof. Thomas Shaw, Ontario Agricultural College, D. M. McPherson, John I. Holson, and others. The White Holland Turkeys, a new introduction that promise much, are described, and perhaps the most timely subject in horticulture is the beautifully illustrated article on winter bulbs, in which the merits of the Chinese Sacred Lily are given.

A MOSSIDE STORY. I have used your Barlock Blood Bitters and Pills and find them everything to me. I had dyspepsia with bad breath and bad appetite, but after a few days use of B. B. B. I felt stronger, could eat a good meal and felt myself a different man. W. H. Story, Mossido, Ont.

A LETTER FROM EMERSON. "I have used Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry and I think it the best remedy for summer complaint. It has done a great deal of good to myself and children." Yours truly, Mrs. Wm. WINTER, Emerson, Man.

Home & Gossip.

Little Local Links in the Town's Chain of History.

QU'APPELLE.

—Picnic today.

—The Fisk Jubilee singers to-night.

—Is it not a fine day at last for the picnic.

—What with baptismal immersion and apostolic succession, our town, at present, is being somewhat controversially and religiously stirred up.

—Our pathmaster, Mr. A. M. McLane is putting the statute labor in our streets under the direction of the Board of Trade. He is doing good work.

—Miss Trewatha has removed to town, and taken the premises adjoining Mr. R. B. Ferguson's jewelry store, where she is prepared to receive orders for dressmaking.

—Everybody who ever heard of the Fisk Jubilee singers speaks well of their music. Their singing is something truly wonderful. Hear them tonight in the Government Hall.

—A plank sidewalk has been completed around the block commencing at Mr. G. H. V. Bulyea's corner to Walsh street and down past St. Peter's church and the terrace to Tenth avenue, thence to the corner opposite the Post Office.

—A very successful public Temperance meeting was held in the immigration building on Friday evening last. There were addresses by Rev. J. Ferry, Rev. A. T. Robinson, Rev. J. Tozeland, and some excellent singing by the Royal Templar Choir.

—The ladies of the Presbyterian congregation purpose giving a social in the Government hall, on Thursday evening, the 2nd prox. No doubt they will have a success as always do, because their preparations are always excellent and complete. Tickets fifty cents each.

—The union picnic under the auspices of the Edgeley, Baptist and Methodist Sunday Schools will be held today in the grove on the south side of the trail about half way between here and Edgeley. Procession leaves the Methodist church at 13 o'clock sharp. Come and bring your baskets.

—Mr. D. E. Bastedo, editor of the Bracebridge Herald, is paying our town a short visit and while here will endeavor to organize a Court of the Independent Order of Foresters, a popular fraternal and benefit society, of which he is Deputy Supreme Chief Ranger. He also purposes organizing at Indian Head, having already a large list of signatures to the charter.

—The pro-ecathedral here is sustaining a great loss in Mr. E. Deo, who has for some years undertaken the duties of organist, yet who perhaps is better known as the Superior of the Brotherhood which was once established at St. John's College. The Br. there are now all dispersed, most of them carrying on a useful mission work in one or other of the dioceses of the Northwest. Mr. E. Deo intends to take the neighborhood of Fort Poly as his special sphere of duty. Those who have long appreciated his services, and his gratuitous services in the cathedral will probably wish to give him some little memorial as a token of it.

—At the hotels: D. E. Bastedo, L. Henderson, Bracebridge; S. C. Elkington, H. W. L. Lamb, Fort Qu'Appelle; J. Peterson, Grenfell; J. S. Wallace, L. Bentley, J. Carlin, Toronto; A. Tremblay, D. L. S. J. Palletier, Quebec; W. Ferguson, Brandon; R. L. Derrnuel, J. Holman, Winnipeg; T. Montgomery, Balgonie; Col. Macdonald and son, Crooked Lake.

—On Wednesday evening, Rev. Mr. Ferry gave his eighth lecture on church history. His subject was "the broken links in the chain of apostolic succession," an it attracted much interest. There were present besides the Presbyterian congregation a number of Methodists and Episcopalians. It is well known the latter claim that their clergy hold their commissions in unbroken succession from the Apostles of our Lord. Mr. Ferry deduced facts from the New Testament and church history and quoted high Episcopal authorities to prove that there was no real succession, and that such and not in truth been established but was a mere assumption. The lecturer put his points so strongly and forcibly that the successionists appeared hard hit, as one of their number asked the privilege of reply, which of course under the circumstances could not be granted. The gentleman then stated he would reply at another time and place, which THE PROGRESS will be pleased to give notice of.

FISK JUBILEE SINGERS.

This Friday evening in the Government hall here, the famous Fisk Tennessee Jubilee singers will give one of their high class entertainments under the auspices of the Methodist church. The newspaper press speaks highly of them wherever they go. It is really an unmixed pleasure to hear their grand and soul inspiring singing, and the people of Qu'Appelle are fortunate in securing an opportunity of hearing them. Program begins at 20 o'clock reserved seats 75 cents, admission 50 cents. The following is one of the many eulogiums they have received from the press.

The famous Tennesseans, under the management of Mr. B. W. Thomas, formerly of the original Fisk Jubilee Singers, performed here last night. The Institute was crowded with a fine audience, largely made up of musical people, to listen to the melodies of the Fisk Tennesseans. Of the 19 numbers on the programme a large proportion elicited enthusiastic applause, and in several cases double or triple encores were given. The melody, "Rise and Shine," the chorus, "I'm Rolling," with "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot," "Jonah and the Whale" and the "Class Meeting," were vociferously cheered. There is the soul of true melody in these plantation songs as rendered by this company. Two recitations by a lady member of the troupe Miss Vernia Gilman, were well received. The Tennesseans will have a warm welcome and a bumper house when they again visit St. John.—St. John, N. B., Telegraph.

BAPTIST MEETING.

On Tuesday afternoon last the Baptists of this town held a special service in Government hall, being addressed by the Rev. Mr. Mordin, from Gladstone. There was a large attendance and a deep interest manifested in the meeting. At the close ten converts received the ordinance of baptismal immersion.

In the evening a farewell social was given in honor of Rev. A. T. Robinson, who has successfully labored here the past six months, and who was leaving for college that night. The hall was crowded full, and the evening very much enjoyed. The following is the program that was rendered:

Opening Hymn. "Blest be the tie that binds." Instrumental Music "Battle of Abyssinia." Address by the Chairman, Mr. Dale.
Song "The Brethren." Mrs. Bulyea.
Speech "By Mr. Tozeland." Song "A Leaf from Mother's Bible."
Mr. D. S. Davies.
Speech, Rev. Mr. Mordin.
Quartet. "Moonlight on the Sea."
Messrs. Miss McLane and Messrs. W. Stewart and Davies.
The excellent tables furnished by the ladies were disposed of during an intermission, when followed the second part of the program: Instrumental Music, "Overture to Taucer!"

Mr. D. S. Davies.
Speech, Rev. Mr. Ferry.
Duet. "Mr. and Mrs. Snigg." Mrs. Bulyea and Mr. Davies.

Finish, "God be with you."
After the social a number of the friends met at the residence of Mr. W. D. McFarlane, and made him a handsome presentation.

W. L. Clark, V. S.

QU'APPELLE.

HAVING had considerable practice in England, is enabled to offer the public genuine and properly amalgamated preparations in horse and cattle medicines which his experience warrants.

W. L. C. while learning the veterinary art, was impressed with the fact that the value of a horse depends so much upon his feet, for no matter how perfect the other parts may be, the horse's services are diminished or altogether lost and knowing that bad shoeing is the most common cause of lameness, he will make scientific principles in shoeing a specialty. Contracts for medical attendance. Operations performed. All charges reasonable.
